About Footsteps

Footsteps Counseling Center is a non-profit professional counseling center that offers outpatient counseling to adults, adolescents, and children from a faith-based perspective. It is Footsteps' goal to provide financial assistance for those unable to afford counseling services.

Footsteps is a 501(c)3 organization that provides approximately $1500 per month of financial support to individuals and families who cannot afford professional mental health treatment. All proceeds from this tournament will be applied directly to the scholarship fund.
